Veterans' Expo & Job Fair Returning to York in March

York, Pa. (Feb. 20, 2019) – Area veterans of all ages, active military, and their families are urged to attend the Veterans' Expo & Job Fair, a free, one-day event from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Tuesday, March 26, at Wyndham Garden York, 2000 Loucks Road, York.

Presented by OLP Events, the Veterans' Expo will connect active and retired military members with the benefits and resources available to them through local businesses and organizations.

During the opening ceremony, the Korean War Veteran Color Guard will post colors, recognizing all branches of service.

Exhibitors represented will include community service providers, healthcare professionals, VA benefits counselors, education/training providers, and business startup assistance, as well as businesses covering everything from home improvement, legal services, and finance to retirement living and insurance.

The U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs will have a Veterans Outreach Van at the Expo, offering veterans and their families direct access to information on service-connected disability compensation, vocational rehabilitation, pensions, VA healthcare, burial and education benefits and more.

Students from Barber Styling Institute will be providing free haircuts during the Veterans' Expo.

In addition, the Job Fair is an opportunity for transitioning and former military personnel of all ages to meet face-to-face with employers to discuss available positions.

Job seekers can visit the Resource Center for mock interviews, financial services and planning assistance, resume reviews and other helpful information for translating military careers to civilian opportunities.

Sponsors include 50plus LIFE; BusinessWoman magazine; Church & Dwight Co., Inc.; Disabled American Veterans; Pennsylvania State Headquarters VFW; and WHTM abc27.

For more information on the Veterans Expo & Job Fair, call (717) 285-1350 or visit www.veteransexpo.com.
